This delightful two bedroom semi-detached house is located within close proximity to Ashford train station and the local shops, within the catchment for great schools and set on a quiet road. The entrance hall leads you through to the kitchen, with all the usual appliances you would expect to find, including a dishwasher, and well sized reception room with back door leading onto the private rear west facing patio garden. The stairs take you to the first floor with bathroom including a bath and over head shower, and two bedrooms, one a large double. The property comes with a separate garage located to the rear of the property, on street parking, comes unfurnished, recently redecorated and is available immediately.
