The Property

Built in 2013, this detached four bedroom family home occupies a generous plot and abounds with contemporary style and classic charm. The green oak family room, with vaulted ceilings and bifold doors, flows seamlessly from the kitchen/dining area into an expansive paved terrace—ideal for alfresco living. Underfloor heating graces the ground floor, while first-floor rooms enjoy radiator warmth. A detached oak-framed home office/den with power and light sits neatly in the garden. To front there is ample off road parking

Location

Nestled halfway between Framlingham and Wickham Market, Hacheston combines rural tranquillity with convenient access to local amenities. Both towns offer shopping, primary schools, and Framlingham includes senior schooling options, plus the historic college.

The vibrant village community includes a busy village hall, a topnotch farm shop and nursery, and is a short cycle from The White Horse Pub, Easton Farm Park, and local sports clubs. The Suffolk Heritage Coast—Orford, Thorpeness, Aldeburgh, Walberswick and Southwold—lies just 10 miles away, while Ipswich's rail services to London Liverpool Street are approximately 15 miles distant
