PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

Millerson Estate Agents are thrilled to present this two-bedroom, mid-terrace, barn conversion situated within a stunning location, to the market. The property benefits from having several Velux windows across the first floor, allowing pools of natural light to flood in through the open plan kitchen, living and dining room. The kitchen offers a range of wall and base fitted storage cupboards and integrated four ring induction hob, dishwasher and washing/dryer. The ground floor comprises of two double bedrooms with en-suite shower room to the primary bedroom and a fully equipped family bathroom, both of which benefit from having porcelain tiles in addition to underfloor heating. There is also an additional study room or office for those remote workers amongst us – perfect for that modern style of living. This property is further enhanced outdoors by featuring allocated parking for up to four vehicles. Another stand-out feature are the patio and courtyard areas to the front and rear of the property paved in Cornish slate, as are the access paths around the estate. The patio with surrounding planting beds offers a tranquil environment for those looking to relax and enjoy the Cornish sunshine. The property is connected to mains electricity and water and has private drainage. It is heated via electric panel heaters and falls within Council Tax Band A. Don't miss out on the opportunity to own this exquisite barn conversion in Tremodrett. This is a versatile property, equally suited to permanent residence, the second home or holiday rental market and is a gem waiting to be discovered.

LOCATION

Tremodrett can be found on the outskirts of the village called Roche, which enjoys a wide range of local amenities including a primary school, public house, church, convenience stores, post office and pharmacy and is only a short drive from St Austell. Roche gets its name from a twenty metre high granite outcrop to the east of the village where the ruins of a former chapel can still be found at the summit. There is excellent access to the surrounding areas including the A30 and the town of St Austell which offers a comprehensive range of shops, entertainment and sporting facilities including a leisure centre and bowling alley.
