Property Description

Millerson Estate Agents are thrilled to bring to the market this spacious and well presented extended home located in the popular village of Penwithick. Being sold with no onward chain, this property would make an ideal family home with accommodation briefly comprising of an entrance porch, reception hall, spacious living room, a bright and airy kitchen/diner, utility room, cloakroom/WC and rear porch on the ground floor. Upstairs is home to three bedrooms and the family bathroom with the front two bedrooms benefitting from far reaching views across to Bodmin Moor, Roughtor and Caradon Hill. Outside there is a landscaped garden to the front whilst the rear offers a bricked paved parking area for multiple vehicles. The property is heated via electric radiators and benefits from a positive air flow system. The property falls under Council Tax Band A. Viewings are strictly by appointment only and are highly recommended to appreciate all that there is to offer.

Location

Penwithick is situated a short drive away from St Austell. The property itself is located in a small local estate and is within walking distance to the post office, fish and chip shop, social club and the park. The popular clay trails are also within easy access and provide an ideal space for walking and cycling. Further afield, you will find a comprehensive range of amenities in St Austell including primary and secondary schools, a cinema, numerous public houses and bistros and a range of high street shops. The picturesque harbour villages of Charlestown and Mevagissey are only a short drive away along with the world famous Eden Project and Lost Gardens of Heligan.
