PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

Millerson Estate Agents are thrilled to present this two-bedroom, semi-detached home to the market. Being nestled in the heart of St Austell, this house is within walking distance to local amenities and transport links. In brief, the ground floor comprises of a light and airy entrance hallway with doors leading to an expansive lounge, ideal for relaxing or entertaining guests. From here you will find a well-equipped kitchen/diner, offering a perfect space for culinary enthusiasts. On the first floor, there is a well-appointed bathroom as well as two double bedrooms. Externally, this property benefits from having a delightful enclosed rear garden, which has been mainly laid to lawn. Additional benefits included two concrete outbuildings as well as front garden which holds scope to create off-road parking. The property is connected to mains electricity, water, gas and drainage. It is heated via gas fired radiators and falls within Council Tax Band C. This property is being sold with no onward chain and vacant possession. In need of renovation throughout, viewings are highly recommended to appreciate all this property has to offer.

LOCATION

This home is situated within a popular residential location and within walking distance to St Austell town centre. Amenities include general shopping, supermarket, pharmacy and dentists. A greater depth of facilities are available within the wider area of St Austell including the leisure centre at Polkyth, cinema, bowling alley, and a number of well known supermarket chains. The town also benefits from a mainline train station, linking Penzance to London Paddington. Access to the A30 is within a 20 minute drive and is the main route outside of Cornwall. Beyond St Austell town lie the sandy sheltered beaches of the south coast, the picturesque fishing villages of Mevagissey and Charlestown, and the stunning coastal walks of the Roseland Peninsula, an area of outstanding natural beauty.
