No ongoing chain! Sat on the ever sought-after Willowbank Road in Prenton is this substantial, three-bedroom, mid-terrace home. This house has many original features with large bay windows and high ceilings that give it an abundance of light throughout. This house offers many possibilities to make it your own. It benefits from an array of local amenities along with fantastic transport links and reputable schools, both secondary and primary. This is not one to be missed!

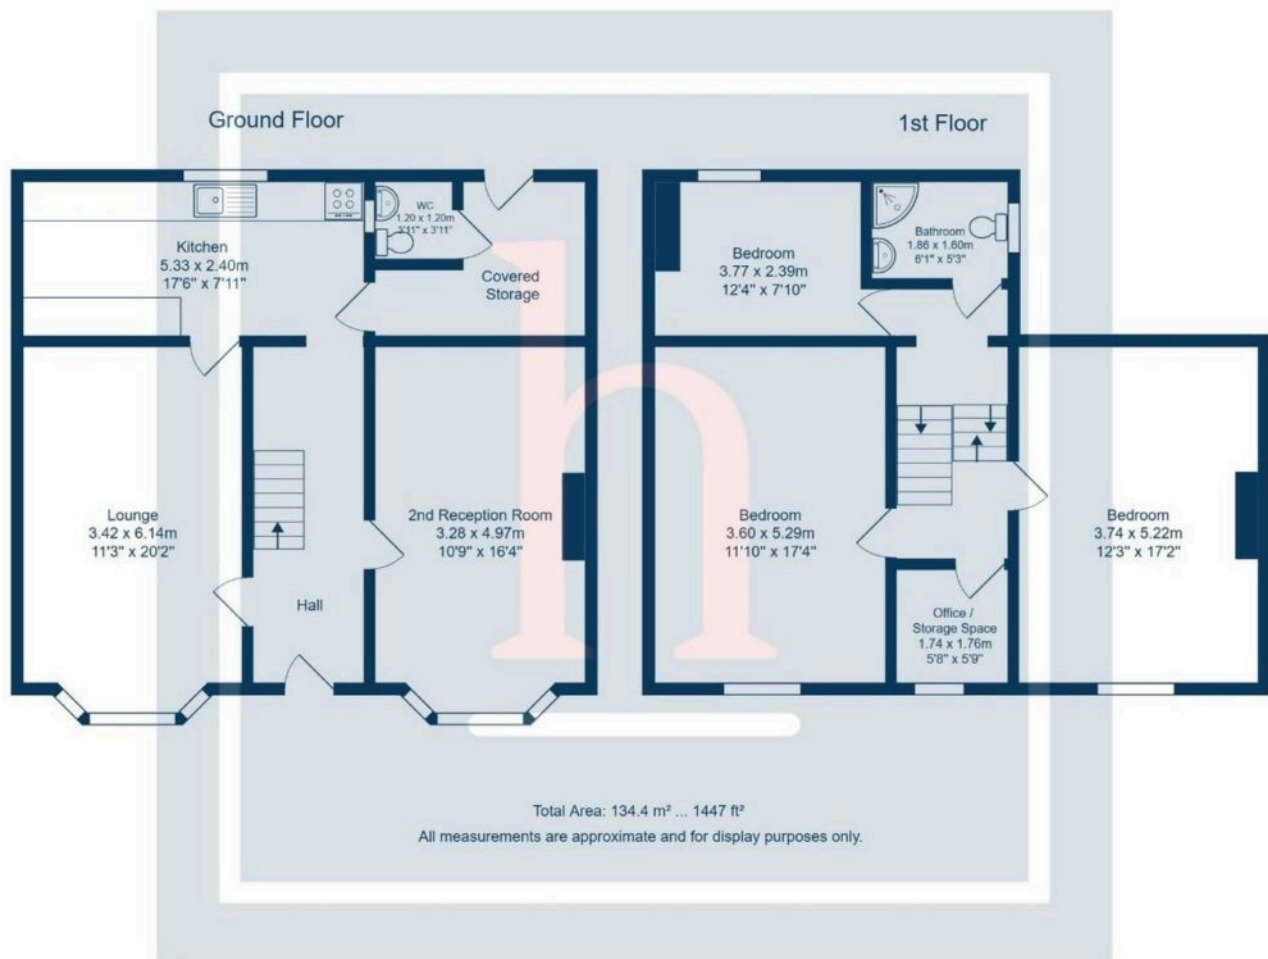

A private front garden greets you upon arrival with a pathway leading to the front door. Stepping inside to the welcoming hallway, the property opens up with access to all main respective rooms on the ground floor. With two reception rooms running either side of the hallway and the kitchen running across the back of the home, a family will have plenty of room to spread out across and utilise all the potential space. The kitchen also leads out to a covered storage area with a downstairs WC.

The first floor boasts three well-proportioned, along with a family bathroom and a fourth room which would make an ideal home office or a potential en-suite to the master or simply a walk-in wardrobe. The two larger bedrooms are both a fantastic size with plenty of space to accommodate free-standing furniture.

The rear of the property offers a private courtyard, whilst the front boasts a lawned garden with plenty of privacy to entertain friends and family during those warm summer months.
