Stylish Detached Bungalow with No Onward Chain! Tucked away on the sought-after Tollemache Road in Cloughton, this impressive three-bedroom detached bungalow sits proudly on a generous plot, offering exceptional indoor and outdoor living space. With thoughtful landscaping, versatile accommodation, and standout features throughout, this home is ideal for both families and downsizers seeking comfort, style, and convenience. Underfloor heating runs throughout the main open plan living space and also in the hallway, smaller bedroom and as mentioned the bathroom. The two main bedrooms have modern radiators that can be adjusted to the coolness or heat you desire. There is also ladders to the loft with a large boarded out space for storage for those extra items.

Boasting ample off-road parking with a gated driveway and beautifully designed wraparound gardens, the exterior offers something truly special. The gardens are cleverly divided into distinct zones for relaxation and entertaining – including a hot tub area, home bar, and outdoor WC – all finished with low-maintenance artificial grass for year-round vibrancy and ease.

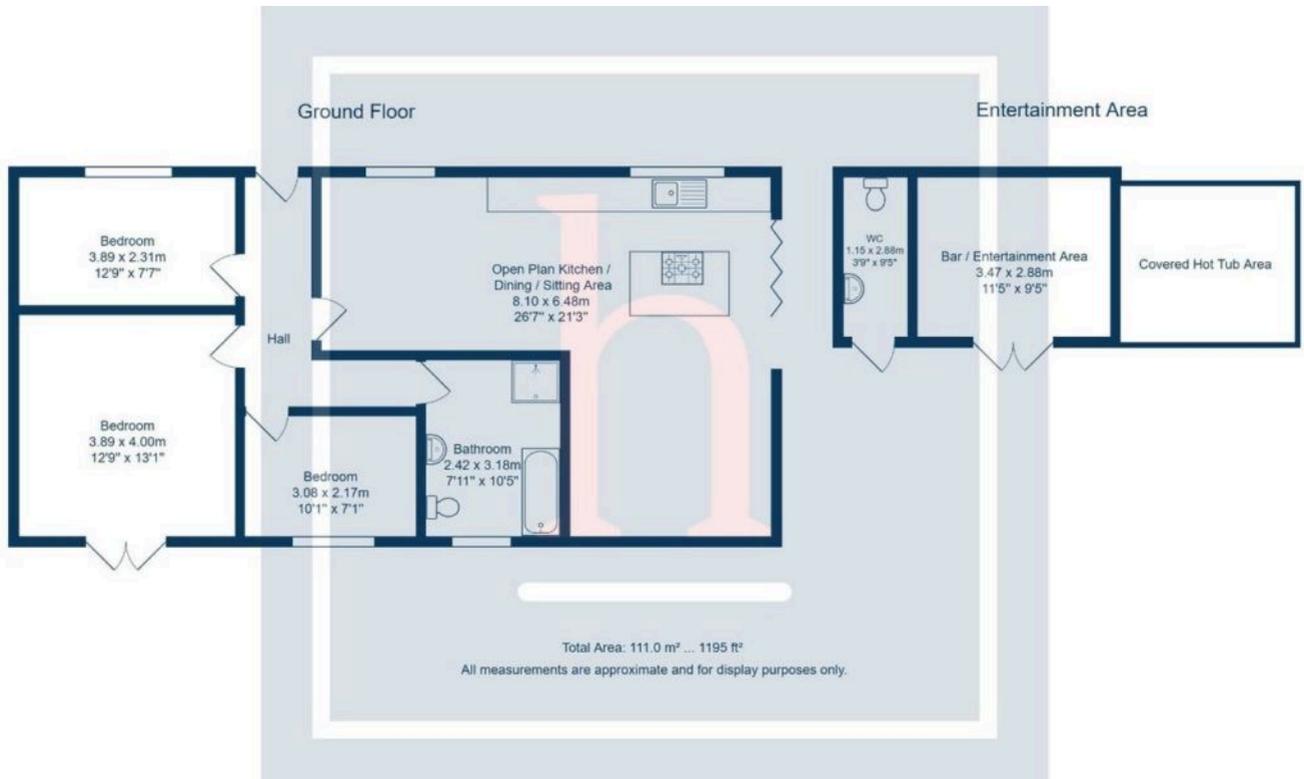

Step inside to a welcoming entrance hall that gives access to all principal rooms. Two of the three bedrooms are generous doubles, with the master bedroom benefiting from French doors that open directly onto the garden. The family bathroom is a true highlight, finished to a high contemporary standard with underfloor heating for added luxury.

The heart of the home is the stunning open-plan kitchen, dining, and living area – a light-filled space designed for modern living. A striking centrepiece kitchen island, floor-to-ceiling window, and bi-folding doors to the garden create an effortless indoor-outdoor flow perfect for everyday living or entertaining.

Ideally located close to excellent schools, local amenities, and convenient transport links, this versatile and beautifully finished bungalow truly ticks all the right boxes.
