Located in the sought-after area of Porfa Ballas, Rhose Point, this well-presented family home offers generous space and excellent sea views. With six bedrooms, it's ideal for a growing family or anyone needing extra room for guests or home working.

The property includes two good-sized reception rooms, providing flexibility for both everyday living and entertaining. There are also two bathrooms, designed to meet the needs of a busy household.

A standout feature is the conservatory, which has underfloor heating, making it a usable, comfortable space year-round. One of the bedrooms opens onto a balcony with views of the coastline, offering a quiet spot to relax.

Outside, the large south-facing garden gets plenty of sunlight and is perfect for spending time outdoors. A double garage provides secure parking and extra storage.

This is a practical, spacious home in a great coastal location, ideal for anyone looking to enjoy more space and fresh sea air without sacrificing convenience.
