Located on Chesterfield Street in Barry, this property presents a fantastic opportunity for first-time buyers or investors looking for a project. Offering three well-proportioned bedrooms and generous internal space, the house has solid potential for transformation.

Inside, you'll find two reception rooms providing flexible living space. The property does require refurbishment throughout, giving buyers a great chance to redesign and modernise it to their own taste.

Although the home is in need of updating, it serves as an ideal blank canvas for anyone looking to add value and create a space finished to their own standards.

The location offers convenient access to local amenities and transport links, making it a practical choice for both homeowners and tenants.

If you're seeking a property with potential and are ready to take on a project, this Chesterfield Street home is a promising opportunity.
