gleeson

Woodhall Chase is a stunning new development of 106 2, 3 and 4 bedroom semi-detached and detached homes located within a short drive of the UK City of Culture of Bradford. Close enough to enjoy all the city has to offer, and on the edge of countryside to the south-east, meaning there are plenty of green spaces for young professionals, first-time buyers, couples and families alike to explore.

- Only two and a half miles from the M62, Wood Hall Chase has excellent transport links heading north to Leeds and beyond, and to Huddersfield and Greater Manchester to the south
- For public transport, local bus stops are within walking distance, including services into Bradford city centre. Bradford Interchange train station is just three miles away, providing direct services to a number of interesting places, such as Leeds, Chester, York and Manchester
- There are plenty of amenities close to Wood Hall Chase, including bars, restaurants, shops, a garden centre and community centre. A Morrisons Daily is nearby and an Asda Superstore just five minutes away, meaning everything you need is right on your doorstep
- For all your healthcare needs, a doctors and dental surgery are within 10 minute walking distance, plus St Luke's Hospital is a 10 minute drive away
- The vibrant city of Bradford has something for everyone, discover a great choice of independent stores and lots of places to grab a coffee and a bite to eat. Bradford is also home to the National Science and Media Museum, which provides a great day out
- There is a choice of primary schools within easy walking distance of the Woodhall Chase, with St John's C of E Primary School on your doorstep. Local secondary schools are also just a short distance away from the development and include Bradford Forster Academy which has been rated Good by Ofsted
