Available with NO FORWARD CHAIN, this four-bedroom detached family home offers an abundance of features with plenty of potential to add your own decorative style. Close to local amenities and coastal pathways, this property offers a substantial footprint, generous room sizes and a beautifully mature easterly facing garden.

The sizeable entrance hallway offers generous spiral feature staircase providing access to first floor. A WC and boot room from the hall provide everyday practicality. The kitchen is a traditional shaker style with a central island. With the added benefit of space for breakfast/dining table, the kitchen offers a fantastic working room with spaces for freestanding appliances. Leading on from the kitchen, the utility room can be found with all relevant services in place for practical functionality. The large sliding doors offer access to rear patio and garden. A versatile library/home office is located with views across the established garden which is flooded with natural light and could work well as a playroom for growing families. The living room offers an expansive space, complete with rear dining room, dual aspect and substantial character feature fireplace.

To the first floor, an architecturally featured curved wall mirrors the spiral staircase to lead you round to the family bathroom, bedrooms three and bedroom four both of which are comfortable doubles. The bathroom is a good size, offering scope to modernise. The landing continues round across to bedroom two which benefits from built in storage & views of the garden. The primary bedroom is truly spectacular, complete with balcony, en-suite and further built in storage, this space has a real wow factor and has to be seen to be admired. Adjacent to the primary, a substantial home office provides ample versatility.

The garden is a substantial plot and laid to lawn with mature borders and established planting.
