PROPERTY DETAILS

Coming to the market for the first time since 1996, Pinfold Cottage is a true hidden gem. This charming one-bedroom, stone-built detached home is brimming with character and potential. In need of sympathetic modernisation, offering the perfect opportunity for buyers to create a truly special retreat in one of the Yorkshire Dales' most sought-after villages.

The property enjoys a range of desirable features, including private parking, a generous garden that adjoins the beck, and a traditional stone outbuilding—ideal for conversion into a home office or garden room (subject to any necessary planning consents).

Step inside the front door and you are welcomed into a characterful sitting room, complete with an exposed stone feature wall, an inviting inglenook fireplace, and traditional ceiling beams that continue over the windows, adding warmth and charm. The through kitchen is bright and airy, with a feature ceiling, Velux window, and an open staircase leading to the first floor. Upstairs, the landing provides access to a spacious double bedroom and a shower room.

Outside, across a small adjoining lane, lies the private parking area, mature garden, and stone outbuilding, offering flexible outdoor space to suit a range of lifestyles.

Hebden itself is one of the true delights of the Yorkshire Dales National Park—a peaceful village surrounded by stunning open countryside. The village is home to the well-regarded Clarendon Hotel, serving pub meals and drinks, as well as the welcoming Old School House tea rooms. Just a short distance away is the bustling village of Grassington, with its array of independent shops, cafés, and pubs, along with regular bus services. For rail connections, the historic market town of Skipton lies approximately 11 miles away.

Whether you are looking for a full-time home, a holiday let, or a second home escape, Pinfold Cottage presents an exciting opportunity to transform a much-loved property into something truly special.
