Charming Two-Bedroom Semi-Detached Bungalow – Chain Free
Situating along the sought-after stretch of The Common in Billericay, Hunter Moon is a delightful two-bedroom semi-detached bungalow combining tranquillity with convenience. Overlooking open farmland, it enjoys beautiful views and a sense of space rarely found so close to the town centre.

The property offers two spacious double bedrooms, two versatile reception rooms, and a good-sized rear garden—perfect for outdoor living and entertaining. There is excellent potential to extend to the side and into the loft, subject to planning permission.

Offered chain free, Hunter Moon is ideal for those looking to downsize, modernise, or invest in a home with real promise. Just a short stroll from Billericay High Street and within easy reach of the station, it perfectly balances countryside calm with town convenience.
