Histon, Cambridge

Nestled in the heart of the highly sought after and bustling village is this well maintained detached bungalow which is offered for sale with no upward chain. Situated just off the High Street and within easy reach of the various amenities the bungalow comprises entrance hall, spacious kitchen/dining room, lounge, two double bedrooms (one with modern en-suite) and a modern shower room. Outside there is a wrap around garden, driveway and large single garage with a room at the rear which is currently used as a utility but offers great scope for use as a home office/studio or potentially to be converted to an annex (subject to planning consent).

The property benefits from gas central heating and solar panels contributing to the electricity and due to the scarcity of such bungalows viewing is highly recommended.

Histon is a highly desirable village just north of Cambridge, combining traditional village charm with excellent local amenities. At its heart is a bustling High Street offering a small supermarket, a popular bakery, an independent butcher, cafés, pubs, and a variety of local shops. The village also benefits from well-regarded primary and secondary schools, attractive green spaces, and a strong sense of community with regular local events. Conveniently located, Histon provides easy access to Cambridge city centre, the A14, and nearby business parks—making it an ideal location for families and professionals alike.
