11 Chesterhall Avenue, Macmerry, Tranent, EH33 1QJ

This elegant and immaculately maintained property offers an exceptional combination of style, comfort and convenience. Set on a generous corner plot, the house enjoys a distinguished presence on the quiet residential street, with double frontages giving light and scope for extension (subject to planning). The sellers have tastefully upgraded and maintained the accommodation throughout, with particular attention to detail. A notable feature is the former garage, now cleverly converted into a well-equipped gym. The area is known for its excellent schools and strong community appeal, making this an ideal family home in a highly sought-after catchment. Early viewing strongly recommended to appreciate the presentation and location.

Accommodation

Situation

Situated approximately one mile east of Tranent, the tranquil village of Macmerry enjoys an idyllic countryside setting within easy reach of local services and amenities and offers the best of city and country living. Cherished for its quiet, rural ambience, the village boasts a primary school, pub, a pizzeria and a well-maintained village green, the venue for the annual summer gala and other community events. The town is only approximately 11 miles from Edinburgh city centre and with the A1, regular bus services and Longniddry, Prestonpans and Wallyford train stations all nearby, it is easily commutable to either the city centre, the City Bypass or the A1 south. The nearby towns of Tranent and Haddington offer a good variety of shops on the High Street, as well as banks, restaurants, pubs, a library plus the recently opened Aldi and Asda stores in Tranent. Both Haddington and Tranent have dedicated Sports and Community Centres with a swimming pool, multi-purpose sports hall, dance studios, gym and children's soft play area. Nearby Fort Kinnaird Retail Park offers a range of large High Street retail outlets, restaurants including a cinema. Primary and secondary schooling are both within easy reach, with tertiary and higher education on offer at Edinburgh College and Queen Margaret University, both in nearby Musselburgh.
