"What we've loved most about this home is its bright, welcoming feel. From cosy evenings by the wood burner to lively dinner parties, it's been the backdrop to so many special memories. The garden, with its amazing views, has been a real highlight, from summer BBQs to watching fireworks. Evening strolls through Narrowways to the local pub have been a simple yet cherished part of life here. But what we'll miss most is the sense of community and friendliness that make this such a special place to live."
