"We immediately fell in love with the house when we viewed it. We were initially drawn to the cottage style character, the light from the large windows and the absolute gem of having a large established garden, so unusual in a city centre location. I love the quiet calming nature of the garden, and we have enjoyed hosting many BBQ's and social gatherings. I also love my early morning runs around Bristol Harbour, soaking in the calming atmosphere by the water before the city slowly starts to wake in preparation for yet another busy day."
