"We loved our time living in this flat, enjoying both the tranquillity of the Greenbank cemetery and quiet residential roads, and the vibrancy the Greenbank, St Mark's Rd and all Easton has to offer. We have loved the proximity to the cycle path and have spent many summer (and winter) weekends cycling to Bath for a day out pottering, as well as being incredibly handy for commuting to town. The flat itself is modern, spacious and is a peaceful retreat from city life, tucked away from the hubbub. The high ceilings give a real sense of openness and the mezzanine is very cosy for curling up with a good book or watching a film. We enjoyed several years here before our family expanded and are excited to allow another owner to put their stamp on it and call it home."
