"We feel so lucky that our children started their lives in Southville. It's a vibrant, exciting area of the city to live. North street has such a lovely aura and the house is so close to the restaurants and coffee shops. We have loved spending time in the kitchen with family and friends, it's a large space for entertaining. Guests have enjoyed sitting at the dining table under the skylights when we have hosted dinner parties. The kitchen extension really has made it a lovely spacious area where everyone can be in the same room. The study and master bedroom at the top of the house are very peaceful and have made it easy for us to work from home."
