"Hestia House is a lovely surprise, like entering a secret escape when the big gates open to reveal a real hidden gem. The sunsets are stunning, we sit around the side of the house with a drink, next to the paddock as the sun sets behind the oak trees. In the summer months, we eat alfresco. In winter we dine in the large open plan dining space it's the hub of the house. Our favourite spot has to be the window seat in the kitchen. The perfect spot!"
