"It's been a great first home where we've started our family. The house is full of character and is cosy, warm space. There's always lots going on in the community, being situated on the high street there's great food and drink spots right on the door step as well. Our favourite spot as a family has been the nature reserve at the bottom of the road, we've made lasting memories there and is full of wildlife and peaceful place to spend a morning."
