"The property itself is in a quiet spot with little to no traffic and there is nothing better than to sit in the lounge or the back patio with the bifold doors flung open to let the sun and warm air in. The estate is surrounded by an abundance of greenery with trees and grass areas galore. Working from home a significant amount of time I have always appreciated the large windows on the 1st floor facing the garden where I can sit and work, or hobby, with lots of natural light."
