Regent House at Camden Goods Yard

Regent House is an exclusive collection of contemporary homes within Camden Goods Yard, a landmark new development in the heart of NW1. This striking residence offers a unique blend of modern design, high-quality finishes, and exceptional amenities, creating a new standard for city living.

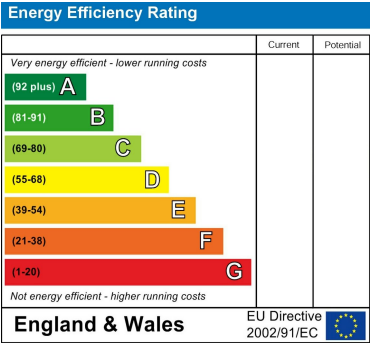

Beyond the residences, Camden Goods Yard is a thriving new destination with boutique retail spaces, modern commercial workspaces, and a rooftop Farm-to-Fork restaurant, offering fresh, locally sourced produce with panoramic views of Regent's Park and the London skyline.

Perfectly positioned for easy access across London and beyond, Regent House is just a short walk from Chalk Farm and Camden Town tube stations, connecting directly to the Northern Line. Nearby King's Cross St Pancras and Euston provide national and international rail links, including Eurostar services to Paris, Brussels, and Amsterdam.

With outstanding design, world-class amenities, and a prime location, Regent House at Camden Goods Yard offers a rare opportunity to own a home in one of London's most exciting new developments. Enquire today to learn more.

This development will provide a total of 644 new homes priced between £725,000 and £1,920,000.
