the location

Santorini - Monolithos

Santorini, the ancient jewel of the Aegean, where towering cliffs crowned by tiny and blindingly white houses plunge straight into the depths of the sea, is the last of the Cyclades islands to the South.

Considered one of the most spectacular and stunning landscapes in the whole world, Santorini is one of the most frequented Greek islands. Magnificent beauty, colourful beaches, breathtaking sunsets and the warm hospitality of the local people, coupled with the mystical and romantic atmosphere of the island, make it the ideal place for your dream home.

the project

Leptos Santorini Villas

Leptos Santorini Villas, are situated on the east coast, only 200 meters from the best beach on the island, the Monolithos – Kamari beach. Being less crowded, the location is only a few minutes drive from the famous town of Fyra and Santorini International Airport, offering therefore a unique balance between peacefulness and accessibility.

Greek island-style villas with classic sky-blue and white-washed exteriors that complement and respect the extraordinary nature and architecture of Santorini.

Comprising of two and three bedrooms with landscaped gardens of local character and the choice of a private pool. These traditional-style villas exemplify the highest standard of construction coupled with the use of local materials.
