Westerhill, Ashton-Under-Lyne, OL7 9RU

Dawsons are delighted to bring to the market Westerhill House, a unique and exceptional period residence. The property is situated in a peaceful hamlet in the scenic and historic Alt Hill Lane/Park Bridge area. This is an excellent location for those looking for a rural setting yet within easy access of all local amenities and excellent commuter links.  NO FORWARD VENDOR CHAIN **

Westerhill House is steeped in history and until 1964 was owned by the Lees family who ran the Park Bridge Iron Works, which provided the rivets for the Eiffel Tower. The nearby Coach House offers further development potential, particularly to the ground floor where there are three garages and storage rooms. Above, on the first floor is currently a three bedroomed apartment. Further, on the second floor and independently accessed, is the open plan loft penthouse.

The Accommodation briefly comprises:

Westerhill House:

Main Entrance Hallway panelled with mosaic floor and with further side Cloaks access, downstairs WC. Fabulous Wood Panelled Billiard Room with high vaulted beamed ceiling. The Panelled Gun Room is adjacent and open to the Billiard Room. The Inner Hallway is lofty and open to the first floor ceiling. The staircase is Georgian. A substantial stained glass window is at one end of the inner hallway. There is a large wood panelled Dining Room with quartered oak flooring, and an open fire in the dramatic large heavily carved wooden fireplace.

The Drawing Room has an impressive 16’ bay window having views across the landscaped Gardens and the adjoining valley.

Off the Drawing Room is the architect designed 17’ x 17’ Conservatory, which offers panoramic views to the south and west. In the rear part are storage cupboards and a sink. It has a quarry tiled floor and on two sides, aluminium set large sliding double glazed doors, plus a separate entrance to the terrace. Built in 1977 and designed by an award-winning Manchester architect, Donald Buttress.

The Breakfast Kitchen seats 6-8 and off it are steps down into the cellar, which has a large salting table and a separate wine cellar. Boiler housed there. Currently used for storage and as a laundry area.

To the first floor there are 4 double Bedrooms (2 having En-suites) and a Family Bathroom

Externally Westerhill House has a substantial courtyard driveway area with large, well maintained, formal Gardens laid mainly to lawn with well stocked flowerbeds and mature border plants and shrubs. The large terrace and walkways are made from reclaimed York stone footpaths in AuL.
