COUNTRY

The property is set off a minor country lane and then down a shared farm track, well away from passing traffic, in the High Weald Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty. The villages of Sedlescombe (2 miles) and Westfield (1 mile) are close by, with the latter having local amenities including a pub, a village store and Post Office, a church, a butcher's, a doctor's surgery and a primary school. Hastings town centre is less than five miles away with a selection of independent high street shops, various leisure facilities and access to multiple supermarkets. Schooling in the area includes state secondary schools in Hastings and independent schools including Claremont School, Battle Abbey School and Buckswood School. The area is well connected by road with the A21 less than a mile away. Mainline rail services are available from Hastings and Battle (5 miles), providing regular services to London Charing Cross and London Bridge.

Hoads Farm is a very appealing and beautifully appointed unlisted detached farmhouse of great character with exposed timber framing and natural stone walls, which has sympathetically extended and updated to a high standard. The external elevations are of mellow brick beneath a pitched tiled roof and the accommodation is arranged over two levels, as shown on the floor plan.

A stable door opens into an entrance hall with a flagstone floor, exposed brickwork to one wall and a cupboard beneath stairs. The sitting room, which is divided from the dining room by the double-sided brick-built central fireplace with a woodburning stove, has exposed ceiling beams and natural stone work to one wall. From the dining area, a wide opening lead to the light and airy garden room with French doors to the terrace and garden. There is also a double aspect study with French doors to the garden and a side hall/boot room with coat hanging space, work surface with cupboard under and door to the garden.

The kitchen/breakfast room, which has a stone floor and a part glazed stable door to an oak-framed porch, has a range of shaker style cabinets comprising cupboards, dresser and drawers beneath wood work surfaces with a glazed sink, a reclaimed wood breakfast bar, Cookmaster electric range with two ovens, 5 hotplates and a filter hood above. Adjacent is a utility area with plumbing for washing machine and dishwasher and a panelled cloakroom with a counter top wash basin and WC.

A turned staircase with an oak balustrade and handrail leads to the first-floor landing with exposed studwork to one wall. The principal bedroom has a range of wardrobe cupboards, double doors to a balcony, and a fully tiled en suite shower room with a walk-in rain shower, basin with vanity cupboards and WC. There are three further double bedrooms, one of which has a Jack and Jill door to the family bath/shower room with a freestanding roll top bath, walk-in shower, wash basin with pine cupboard beneath and WC.

Outside: From the farm lane, the driveway opens into a parking area for multiple vehicles and concrete yard with a substantial purpose-built unit comprising two large loose boxes, hay store and tack room. In addition, there is a timber workshop 19'7 x 13'8 and attached store 11'3 x 10'11 together with an open-fronted machinery store/wood shed. The landscaped gardens are set down to areas of lawn with fruit, bay and olive trees, mature specimen trees including robinia and catalpa and a wide paved terrace adjacent to the house with raised beds and burgeoning borders planted with verbena, lavender, Californian poppies, iris, honeysuckle, geraniums, climbing roses, stachys lanata, wisteria, ox-eye daisies and ornamental grasses. To one corner is a detached former summerhouse which has been converted to provide an open plan living room/bedroom/kitchenette with a wood burner, together with a shower room with basin, shower and WC. Beyond the gardens are four paddocks with water connected. In all approaching 8 acres.
