The property occupies a prominent location set back from the tree lined High Street of the market town of Tenterden, providing a comprehensive range of amenities including traditional and specialist independent shops and national outlets, Waitrose and Tesco supermarkets, professional services including a bank, building society, accountants, solicitors and doctors' surgery, together with schools for all ages, restaurants and period buildings. Tenterden has a modern leisure centre and two golf courses. Mainline railway services to London Charing Cross are available from Headcorn (9 miles), whilst Ashford International (13 miles) provides high speed links to London, St Pancras (37 minutes) and the Continent via Eurostar. The M20 link at Ashford provides access to the M25 motorway network.

A recently renovated late eighteenth century Grade II Listed timber-framed period house faced with alternate bands of plain and curved tiles set with bespoke wooden high performance, double glazed sash-windows to the front elevation beneath a hipped tiled roof with bracket eaves cornice. The well-presented accommodation, which has good ceiling heights throughout, is arranged over three levels, as shown on the floor plan. To the rear the property offers a courtyard garden and a private parking space with an electric vehicle charging point.

A panelled front door with a fanlight opens to a hall with the original staircase to the upper floors.

The double aspect open plan kitchen and dining/day room has a large front bay window, wooden flooring and a kitchen area fitted with a range of high gloss cabinets comprising handleless cupboards and drawers beneath woodblock work surfaces, matching wall mounted cupboards, an inset stainless steel sink/drainage unit, an inset hob with stainless steel filter hood above and built in oven below, an integrated fridge/freezer, dishwasher and a door to the rear garden.

Adjacent to the kitchen is a cloak/utility room with a close coupled w.c, wash basin with vanity cupboard, washing machine, deep storage recess and a hatch to the cellar where the gas meter is situated.

On the first floor, there is a landing with a staircase to the second floor. The sitting room has a casement window to the rear. Bedroom 2 has a sash window to the front elevation overlooking the High Street.

The bath/shower room has contemporary white fittings comprising a close coupled w.c, pedestal wash-hand basin, panelled bath with fixed shower above, fitted screen and part tiled walls.

On the second floor there is a landing with a hatch and retractable ladder to the roof space. The principal bedroom has a wide sash window to the front elevation overlooking the High Street and an en-suite shower room fitted with a modern white suite comprising close coupled w.c, pedestal wash-hand basin, large shower enclosure and part tiled walls. Bedroom 3 has a window to the rear providing distant rural views.

Outside: Immediately to the rear of the property is an enclosed fully paved courtyard garden with gated access to the rear leading to the adjoining off road parking space for one car, accessed via Caxton Close, with an electric vehicle charging point.
