COUNTRY

Set back slightly from the beach but within a short walk, the property is situated within the coastal hamlet of Pett Level, which has a sunken forest, a 15th century sunken warship, a WWII look out, fossils along the cliffs and the Royal Military Canal. In the vicinity are spectacular cliff top walks, local nature reserve and bird sanctuary. Nearby Winchelsea Beach has a Co-Op supermarket and Post Office and Sutton's Fish Shop. The Ancient Town and Cinque Port of Rye, famed for its medieval architecture and cobbled ways, is within 5 miles. The town offers a range of local independent shops, schools for all ages, general weekly market and local train services to Eastbourne and to Ashford International with high-speed connections to London St. Pancras (37 minutes). Westwards is Hastings with its seafront promenade, Old Town and Priory Meadow shopping centre.

A highly individual, detached coastal property, re-imagined and designed from an earlier structure by the wildlife and landscape artist Annie Soudain and her husband John in 1972 and then further extended in 1982. The construction is timber frame with brick piers beneath a mono-pitch felt roof set with tall windows to take maximum advantage of the views. The well presented, versatile living accommodation is arranged over two levels, as shown on the floor plan.

A glazed front door opens into a hall with full height glazing to two elevations, a quarry tiled floor and double doors opening to an inner hallway with a spiral staircase to the first floor. Bedroom 1 overlooks the Military Canal and has glazed double doors opening to the front garden. Bedroom 2 has a similar outlook. The utility room has a tiled floor with underfloor heating, plumbing for a washing machine, a reclaimed farmhouse sink on a stand and a door to the garden. Adjacent is a fully tiled shower room with underfloor heating, walk-in shower, pedestal wash basin and close coupled w.c.

On the first floor, there is a landing with a door to the rear deck and a door to an inner landing with a built-in linen cupboard. The triple aspect living room has full height windows to take full advantage of the coastal and sea views to Cliff End, a wood burning stove, natural wood floorboards and exposed ceiling beams with attractive herringbone pattern infill wood panelling. The kitchen/breakfast room has glazed bi-fold doors which open onto a large decked terrace with steps down to the rear garden, natural wood floorboards and exposed ceiling beams with herringbone pattern infill wood panelling. The kitchen is fitted with bespoke pine cabinets comprising cupboards and drawers beneath preparation surfaces with matching wall cupboards, an inset stainless steel sink, Space for a fridge freezer, an electric cooker point and a Wamsler slow combustion wood stove with back boiler for cooking and hot water. There are two double bedrooms on this floor, one of which has a balcony to the front with sea views, together with a shower room with a pedestal wash basin, close coupled w.c and shower enclosure.

Outside: The property is approached from Pett Level Road over a shared unmade track, serving two neighbouring properties, which passes over a small bridge and then leads to the property where there is ample parking and access to a open shelter pole barn with a store. The open front garden is set down to lawn which slopes gently down towards the reed beds of the Military Canal. The good size rear garden, which extends to approaching 130', is an arresting space with a paved terrace, brick pathways, reclaimed groynes and deep borders of perennials and beds of exotic planting consisting mainly of shades of green and varying textures, including cordylines, ferns a twisted willow, hydrangea, hollyhocks, bay trees and gunnera, creating a serene contemporary feel. A footbridge leads over a small stream to an area of lawn with apple trees which extends to the sandstone cliffs of Toot Rock with Mesolithic caves.
