Communication links are good, with the M4 not far away, and Chippenham station offering regular high speed rail links to London.

The House

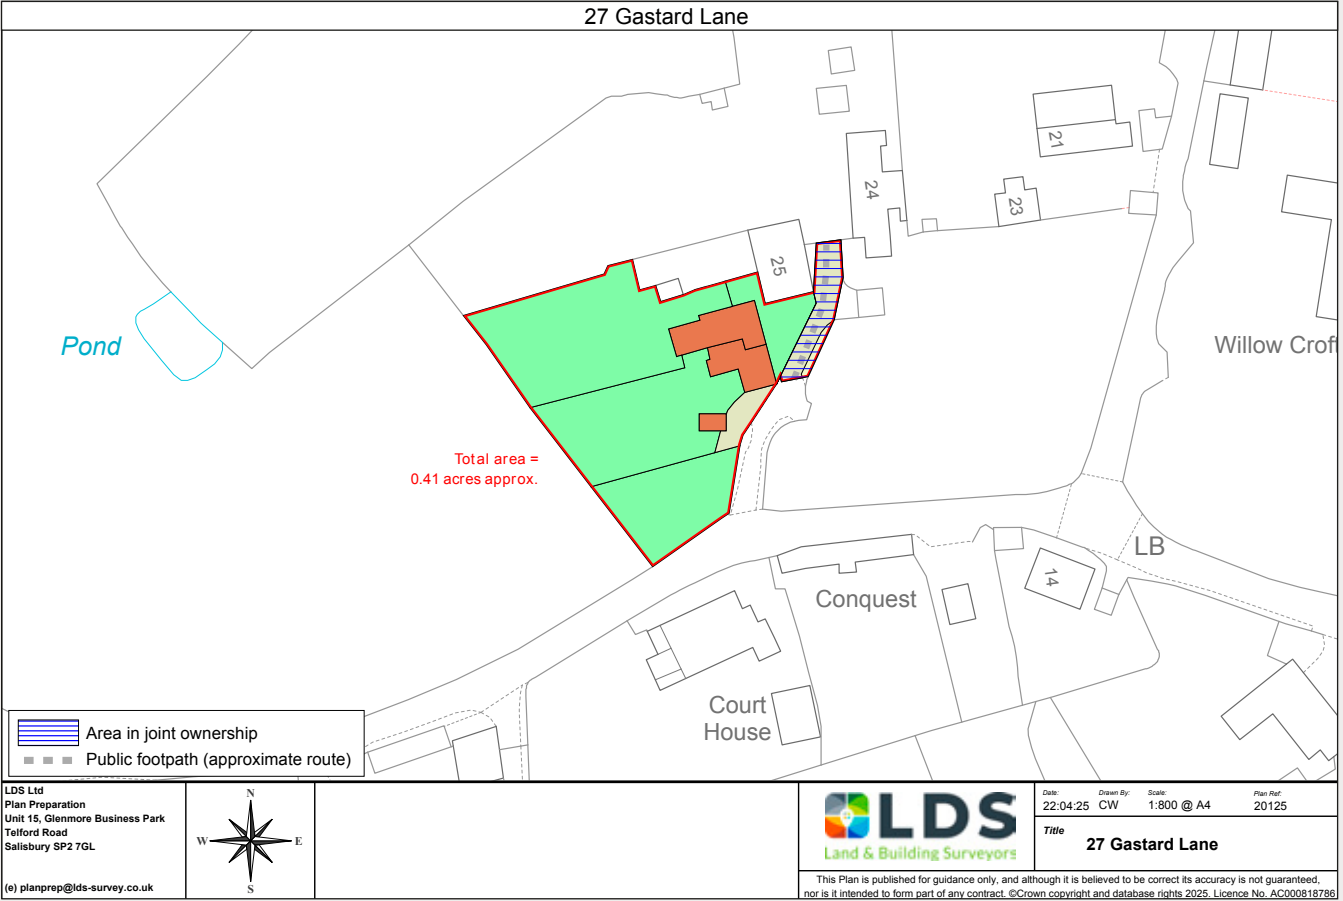

27 Gastard Lane, also known as Court Cottage, dates to the late 17th century and was originally two houses, No. 26 & 27.

The property oozes character with exposed wooden beams, open fireplaces, stone mullion windows; and offers well-presented accommodation, arranged over three floors.

To the left of the formal entrance hall, you have the family room with a fabulous inglenook fireplace with wood burner, and to the right you have the open plan living/dining room featuring an impressive open fireplace with Jetmaster and the original bread oven. A door from here leads through to the kitchen/breakfast room with AGA and French doors opening onto the terrace, beyond this is the beautiful garden room where you can take in the peaceful setting.

On the first floor you have three well proportioned double bedrooms, one with an en suite shower room, and the family bathroom.

On the second floor there are a further two double bedrooms, a shower room and a large study area, or a great space for kids/teenagers.

Outside

The property is approached onto a shared single-track lane, which then leads onto a private driveway that provides parking for two/three cars in addition to the double garage.

There are pretty country gardens comprising large lawn, colourful planted beds, a selection of shrubs and trees.

There is an entertaining terrace, potting shed, and two garden stores.
