This four bedroom detached house was sympathetically converted in the early 1990s retaining many of the period features and character throughout. Situated in a quiet courtyard setting, shared with only two other character dwellings in the sought after village of Harby and enjoying views of the Grantham Canal. The village benefits from a primary school, public house, local shop and garage. Ideally placed for the A52, A46 and Grantham train station where there are high speed trains to London King's Cross.

The accommodation on offer comprises: entrance hall, cloakroom, dual aspect lounge with open fireplace, dining room, spacious breakfast kitchen and a utility room to the ground floor. Four spacious double bedrooms, ensuite bathroom to the main bedroom and a separate wet room to the first floor. Outside the property benefits from a double width driveway, double garage, enclosed lawned garden and separate courtyard garden which catches the afternoon and evening sun and enjoys spectacular

ENTRANCE HALL Front door into the light and airy entrance hall with dual aspect windows, staircase leading to the first floor landing, tiled flooring with deep pine skirting and cottage latch ledge and brace doors leading to:

LOUNGE 15' 4" x 16' 8" (4.69m x 5.10m) Having three dual aspect windows and french doors opening onto the rear courtyard with open views makes this generous reception room light and airy. Feature exposed brick fireplace and flagstone hearth inset with an open grate, heavily beamed ceiling, deep pine skirting, two radiators and carpet flooring.
