Situation

(Distances and times are approximate)

Eastcombe is an established village between Stroud and Cirencester on high ground. It benefits from a village store/Post Office, The Lamb Inn, a Parish Church, Eastcombe Primary School, and the secondary school, Thomas Keble School, both within the village.

 Sought-after grammar schools in Stroud (Stroud High for girls, Marling for boys), Gloucester and Cheltenham. Cheltenham - Cheltenham Ladies College, Cheltenham College and Dean Close. Minchinhampton - Beaudesert Park. Stonehouse - Wycliffe. Westonbirt School. School buses run along to most local schools in private and state sectors.

 Easy access to M4 and M5 motorways.

 Within walking distance, there are fabulous footpaths to the village of Bisley, with its farm shop and two village pubs.

The Property

Keeper's Cottage is a beautiful and well-proportioned Cotswold house with a wealth of charm, features, and character. The properties enjoy stunning views along this wide wooded valley and a gentle stream meandering through. Separate from the house is a one bedroom guest cottage with a shower room and with a mezzanine area, currently used as an office and library.

Gardens and Grounds

The property, formerly the gamekeeper's cottage for the nearby Lypiatt Estate, is set hidden at the end of a lane which leads along a wide-open wooded, peaceful valley.

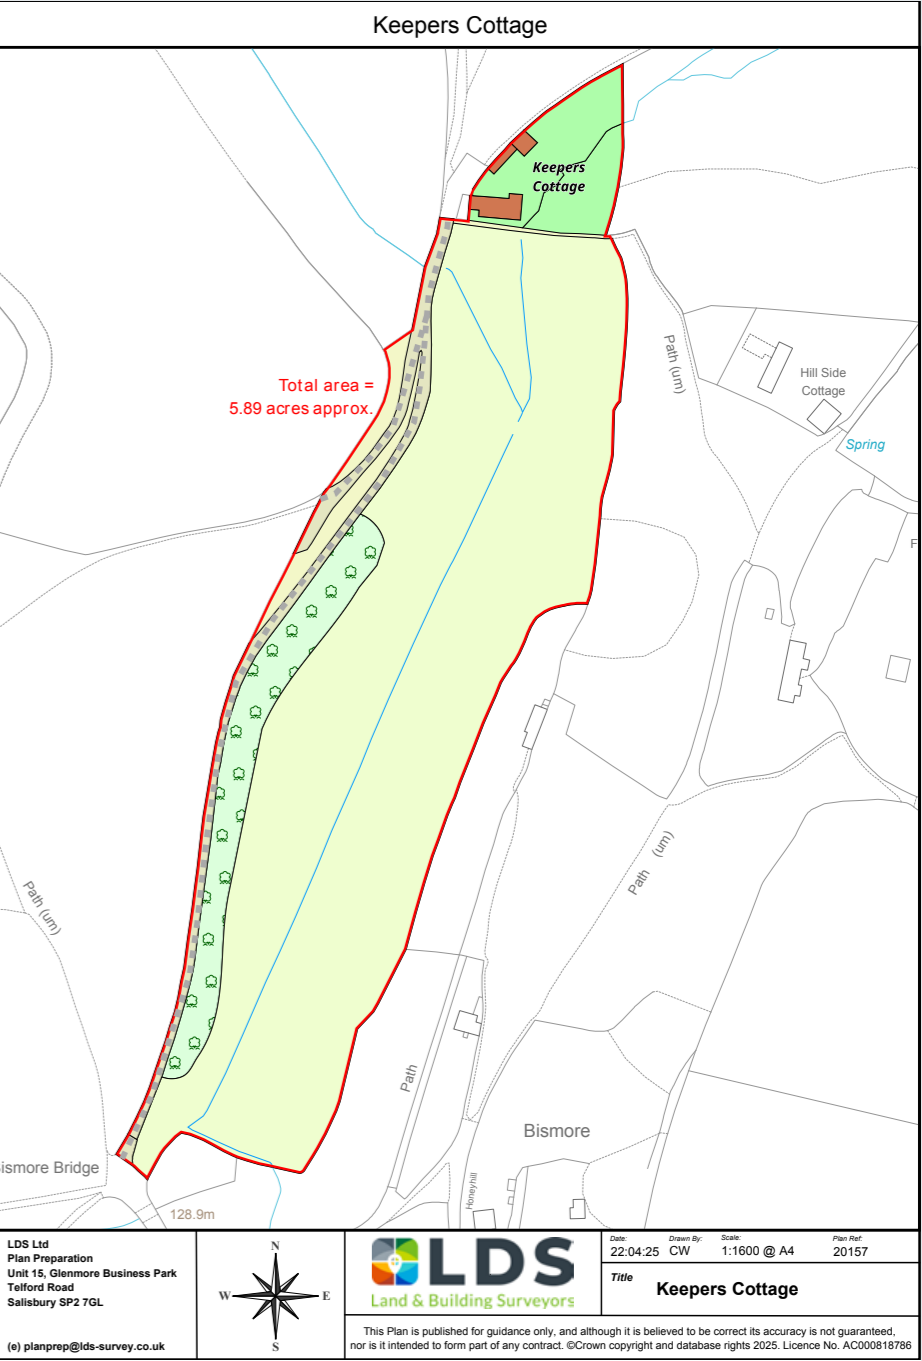

The property is set in beautiful nature-filled gardens filled with rare wildflowers and a mixture of trees surrounded by Cotswold walls. To the front of the cottage is a large 5 acre meadow that runs through the valley. Besides the property, there is parking for several cars and various outbuildings for additional storage.
