Within the last four years, the property has been comprehensively modernised and extended, most notably its cavernous roof space was converted to provide additional bedroom accommodation, and two further living areas were added at the rear of the house. Kitchen and bathroom fittings have been stylishly updated, windows and doors have been replaced with energy efficient sealed units, and the boiler, hot water cylinder and oil tank have all been renewed. The whole property is presented in immaculate order throughout and viewing is strongly advised.

The accommodation briefly comprises open-fronted porch, entrance porch, 23ft sitting room, dining room, study with lantern roof light, a separate snug, kitchen with range of NEFF appliances, utility room, boiler room, two ground floor double bedrooms, a bathroom, shower room and staircase hall. Upstairs there is a further shower room and three more bedrooms, including a superb master bedroom, which enjoys breathtaking views.

Ash Lea enjoys an elevated position and borders open fields, across which the property enjoys sensational views for miles, and the current owner has ensured that this outlook is the focus from all principal rooms. Externally, a recently resurfaced tarmac driveway provides a huge amount of parking and leads to a detached double garage. The gardens, which lie principally to the front and rear, have been attractively landscaped and enjoy sun throughout the day.

Adjoining the rear garden is a useful grass paddock, which amounts to approximately 1.5 acres. This is divided into two parts, includes an open-fronted field shelter and will hold significant appeal to anyone with equestrian or smallholding interests. The overall site area totals approximately 1.81 acres.

Foxholes is a delightful village set within the beautiful countryside of the Yorkshire Wolds and yet with easy access to excellent amenities in the nearby towns of Scarborough (13 miles), Driffeld (10 miles) and Malton (18 miles).
