GUIDE PRICE £475,000

This high-quality barn conversion enjoys a peaceful, rural setting and yet is within a short drive of the nearby market town of Malton, and the A64. Completed to an exceptional standard and with a contemporary finish, The Smithy offers country living at its best and its spacious accommodation is arranged over a single floor totalling more than 1,660sq.ft. It has been designed as a three-bedroom home, although at present one is utilised as a dressing room. The whole property is flooded with natural light, further enhanced by open-plan kitchen and living spaces, which open directly onto the gardens. There is a real focus on energy efficiency, with underfloor heating throughout, provided by a ground source heat pump.

The property is situated mid-way between Ryton and Great Habton in open countryside. Ryton is a quiet hamlet located only 3 miles north of Malton, therefore despite its rural situation there is excellent access to the A64 Malton bypass for good communications to York, Leeds and beyond. Manor Farm is located along Ryton Rigg Road, a quiet country lane, linking Ryton with the nearby village of Great Habton, where there is a popular public house. The market town of Malton benefits from an excellent range of amenities including shops, pubs, sports facilities and a railway station with regular services to York and the East Coast.

Please note that the property is subject to a local needs occupancy condition. Further details are available on request.
