Dating from the mid-1850s, South View is tucked away on Water Lane, close to the centre of the village and occupies a large plot of around one third of an acre. The house was extended some ten years ago and now provides extensive accommodation of over 2,700sq.ft.

In brief, the accommodation comprises entrance hall, sitting room with log burner, snug, 32ft cinema/games room, 22ft dining kitchen with pantry, utility room and ground floor shower room. Upstairs is a master bedroom with balcony overlooking the garden, dressing room and shower room, three further double bedrooms and a house bathroom.

Central heating is provided by an oil-fired boiler, windows are uPvc double-glazed, and there are photovoltaic solar panels to the front elevation.

Attached to the eastern side of the house is an attached double garage, in front of which is a parking area. The gardens are large and extend in a westerly direction on the opposite side of the house and amount to around one third of an acre in total. The property currently operates as successful holiday let, and should this be of interest, further details are available on request.

Sherburn is a particularly well-served village and benefits from a village shop, post office, primary school, Doctors surgery, public house, church and chapel. There is good access to the A64, the market town of Malton is approximately 12 miles west, Scarborough is 10 miles east and York is 30 miles south-west.
