DESCRIPTION / BACKGROUND

Farmleigh is an exquisite period property whose thorough restoration has been done with a light touch, ensuring the innate character of this, unlisted, 18th Century Farmhouse sits comfortably alongside a high specification finish and beautiful presentation.

The accommodation comprises; entrance hall with an elegant return staircase which spans three floors. A front facing sitting room with bay window overlooking the garden. Dining room to the rear. Breakfast kitchen with bespoke oak and granite units and both an AGA range and separate dual fuel oven. Cellar, housing the boiler and offering excellent storage. On the half landing is a newly refitted utility room with separate cloakroom. To the first floor is a large Master Bedroom with en-suite shower room, an elegantly proportioned bedroom faces the rear and is currently used as an additional sitting room. To the second floor are up to three further double bedrooms and a newly fitted bathroom. In total the house provides 2,200 square feet of accommodation.

Farmleigh Cottage is a rare commodity, a house which works well as an additional property to the main house, ideal for any buyer keen to house multiple generations. Additionally, the cottage has completely unrestricted occupancy and could be permanently let out on an AST or as a holiday let, providing the opportunity to create a separate income. Finally, Farmleigh Cottage is completely independent to Farmleigh and could be sold off separately if required, but its appeal surely lies in the opportunity to realise an income, this and coupled with the adjoining one-bedroom annexe/home office, which could offer further potential as a holiday let, subject to any additional consents. In total 1,018 square feet.

The Cottage has been renovated to create a bright and airy main living space with the whole of the eastern wall given over to three quarter height windows, flooding the room with a good degree of natural light. The ground floor is entirely open plan with living/dining room with handsome limestone floor and inset woodburning stove and a recently refitted kitchen with integrated high specification units and electric Everhot range oven. Upstairs is the master bedroom with a stylish newly fitted shower room. There is a further double bedroom with lovely, vaulted ceiling and a main bathroom.

Adjoining Farmleigh Cottage is a large traditional building, currently offering valuable storage and parking space, but with huge scope to be reconfigured to create further accommodation subject to all necessary planning consents.

To the far end is the 'The Herbery', a self-contained annexe which would be an ideal guest suite and is privately situated within the kitchen garden. The Herbery provides living area with woodburning stove and separate kitchenette. Sleeping area and a re-fitted shower room.

The properties are set within attractively landscaped grounds with a generous area of parking and separate garage.
