GUIDE PRICE £415,000

An elegant first floor apartment providing attractive, well specified accommodation set within the glorious grounds of Kirkdale Manor.

Kirkdale Manor was built in around 1890 for the Beckett family to a beautiful neo-classical designed and remained unchanged until around 18 years ago when the building was converted. The conversion was undertaken with both sensitivity and imagination, marrying together traditional features with a fresh contemporary spin and a high specification finish. The grounds are superb, including formal gardens, mature parkland and a tennis court with ample amenity opportunities making it an ideal lifestyle property. The monthly maintenance charge covers all external maintenance, making this an especially straightforward property to maintain.

Located in the main house and one of only nine apartments within the building, Apartment 6 benefits from an impressive main entrance and hallway with both stairs and a lift providing access to the top floor. The accommodation amounts to 1,539 ft² in total with rooms which are exceptionally spacious and lights, with many rooms being dual aspect. In brief: entrance hall, utility room and a large triple aspect dining kitchen, with high end stylish units and fitted appliances, spacious dining and living areas. There is an impressive master bedroom with a dual aspect and a large en-suite shower room and a large further bedrooms and the main house bathroom.

Nawton is a thriving village lying on the A170 Thirsk to Scarborough road and is approximately three miles from Helmsley and three miles from Kirkbymoorside. The village is particularly well-served with amenities, such as a pub, primary school, well regarded secondary school, Indian restaurant and recreation ground and the village is on a good bus route. Kirkdale Manor is located at the top of the High Street.
