GUIDE PRICE £650,000

A handsome modern stone property, located just off Roxby Road, only a short and level walk from the centre of Thornton le Dale.

Newbald House was built around 60 years ago and has had just two owners in that time. The property was built to the specification and design of the original owner with especially well-proportioned rooms, a versatile layout with bedrooms to both floors and an easy flow of accommodation.

In all the house provides over 2,700 square feet of accommodation. The house is fully double glazed and has a modern gas fired central heating system and solar PV panels for electric and hot water, scoring a high 'C' in the EPC. In brief, large central entrance hall, triple aspect sitting room, front facing dining room and a generous breakfast kitchen with pantry and utility room. There is a large double bedroom to the ground floor and bathroom with separate shower. Upstairs are three further generous double bedrooms, each with plenty of fitted storage and a further bathroom.

The house sits within well-established grounds which surround the property to all sides and combine well established shrub and flower borders with lawn and an ornamental water garden. There is plenty of parking on the driveway to the front and side and within the integral double garage.

LOCATION

One of the main attractions of the property is the situation; being located within Thornton le Dale, one of North Yorkshire's most picturesque and popular National Park Villages. The village is centred around Thornton Beck and the Green, clustered around which are a number of small independent shops and eateries, including two public houses and bistro. The village lies on the doorstep of some of the most beautiful countryside in the area with endless opportunity for outdoor recreation. Thornton le Dale is situated approximately two miles east of the popular market town of Pickering and eight miles north of Malton and enjoys easy access to the A64 providing links to the wider metropolitan area. services to London, Leeds & Edinburgh.
