Tucked away off Roxby Terrace yet only a short walk from the centre of the village, Hemdin cottage comprises a detached stone cottage with recently refurbished, three-bedroom accommodation. There are good sized grounds to the front and side and off-street, private parking on the parking area at the side.

The up-to-date accommodation amounts to 935 square feet in total which briefly comprises: a front facing living room, generous dining kitchen with a modern range of units and integrated appliances. Rear Hall/Study and cloakroom. Upstairs are three bedrooms, two of which are doubles and an up-to-date house bathroom.

The cottage is hidden away from the street, sitting well back from Roxby Terrace within an unusually generous plot. The garden is largely laid to lawn and faces south. There is off-street private parking to the side, with space for two vehicles.

Thornton-le-dale is a pretty, well-served village some three miles to the east of the market town of Pickering and lies within the southern boundary of the North York Moors National Park. The village has a variety of shops, including butcher, bakery, Post Office and pharmacy, with two doctor's surgeries, cafes and public houses.
