DESCRIPTION

A detached bungalow situated within close proximity to the town centre of Bishops Waltham which is within walking distance for some or just a very short drive.

The property offers flexible accommodation with either two or three bedrooms, shower room, a lounge and kitchen.

There is a driveway to the side with a car port plus an area of rear garden.

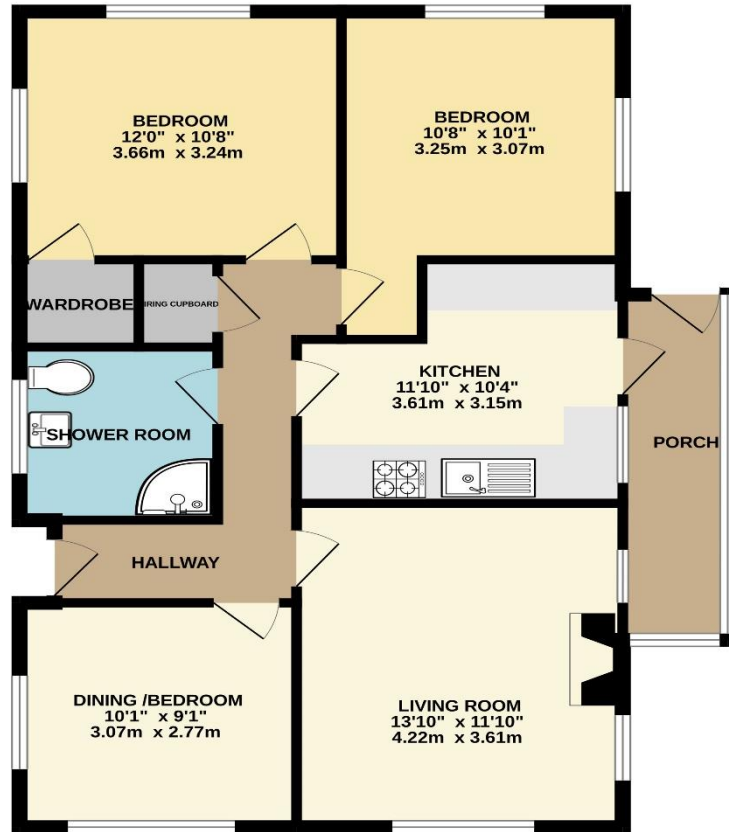

The country town of Bishops Waltham is very desirable with an attractive and traditional high street with a range of shops, services and eateries. The south coast centres of Winchester, Southampton and Portsmouth are all within reasonable driving distance as is motorway access and rail services.

There is no forward chain with this property and viewing is recommended as detached bungalows within a short distance of the town centre are rarely available.
