Informative

A negative reply does not imply that the property or any adjoining or adjacent land is free from contamination, or from the risk of it, and the reply may not disclose steps taken by another local authority in whose area adjacent or adjoining land is situated.

3.14 Radon Gas

Do records indicate that the property is in a "Radon Affected Area" as identified by Public Health England?

The area indicated has been identified as being a site where Radon gas may be present, and may therefore be above the action level.

Informative

Radon Affected Areas are designated by the Health Protection Agency (HPA). It is recommended that the level of radon gas should be measured in all properties within Radon Affected Areas. The present owner or (for a new property) the builder should be asked whether protective measures were incorporated in the construction of the property; whether radon levels have been measured in the property; whether the results were at or above the Action Level (prescribed by the HPA) and if so whether remedial measures were installed and whether the radon levels were re-tested and confirmed the effectiveness of the measures.

A free radon information pack which gives basic information about radon and describes how to obtain a radon measurement is available.

*For more information please see the HPA website - <http://www.hpa.org.uk/radiation/default.htm>
To request a pack please email your name, address and postcode to radon@hpa-rp.org.uk or leave your name, address and postcode on the HPA free radon answerphone (0800 614529).*

These replies have been given in accordance with the notes appended to CON29 form.

References to the provisions of particular Acts of Parliament or Regulations include any provisions which they have replaced and also include existing or future amendments or re-enactments.

The replies will be given in the belief that they are in accordance with information presently available to the officers of the replying local authority, but none of the local authorities or their officers accepts legal responsibility for an incorrect reply, except for negligence. Any legal responsibility for negligence will be owed to the person who raised the enquiries and the person on whose behalf they were raised. It will also be owed to any other person who has knowledge (personally or through an agent) of the replies before the time when he purchases, takes a tenancy of, or lends money on the security of the property or (if earlier) the time when he becomes contractually bound to do so.

This Form should be read in conjunction with the guidance notes available separately.

Area means any area in which the property is located.

References to the Local Authority include any predecessor Local Authority and also any Local Authority committee, sub-committee or other body or person exercising powers delegated by the Local Authority and their approval includes their decision to proceed. The replies given to certain enquiries cover knowledge and actions of both the District Local Authority and County Local Authority.

Where relevant, the source department for copy documents should be provided.
