

Main Road, Brereton, Rugeley, WS15 1DX

Offers In Region Of £140,000

Offered with NO UPWARD CHAIN, viewing is highly recommended to fully appreciate the size and space of this charming two-bedroom end-terraced cottage, located in the sought-after area of Brereton, Rugeley. Perfectly suited for first-time buyers or investors, this property offers modern living with characterful charm.

Key Features

| NO UPWARD CHAIN                      | • TWO BEDROOMS                |
|--------------------------------------|-------------------------------|
| • POPULAR LOCATION                   | CLOSE TO AMENITIES            |
| A SHORT DISTANCE TO CANNOCKCHASE | • IDEAL FOR FIRST TIME BUYERS |
| ONE ALLOCATED PARKING SPACE          | •                             |
| •                                    | •                             |
|                                      |                               |
|                                      |                               |
|                                      |                               |
|                                      |                               |
|                                      |                               |
|                                      |                               |
|                                      |                               |
|                                      |                               |
|                                      |                               |
|                                      |                               |
|                                      |                               |