DESCRIPTION

Built in 1821 and available to view by appointment only, this charming Grade II listed terraced house boasts an array of period features and is set over four floors and situated moment from Dalston Kingsland station.

This delightful property consists of two bedrooms on the lower ground floor (one with en suite shower room). A reception room and kitchen on the raised ground floor, with access to the stunning garden extending to over 50 feet in length, the first floor has two further bedrooms (one being used as reception room) and the top floor has another bedroom and family bathroom and ample storage throughout. The property offers an interchangeable layout, allowing incoming buyers to use according to their own needs.

Conveniently located in the heart of Dalston, there are a plethora of exciting restaurants, shops, cafes and bars nearby. The numerous amenities of Stoke Newington, Newington Green and De Beauvoir are also only a short walk away. In addition, the house benefits from superb transport links via Dalston Kingsland and Dalston Junction stations and numerous bus routes to the City and West End.

Transport links include Dalston Kingsland & Junction Stations (Overground) and a wide variety of Bus routes into The City & West End.
