

161, Hurdsfield Road, Macclesfield, Cheshire SK10 2QX

Located just outside of Macclesfield town centre lies this charming terrace property that is presented in a good decorative order and would be an excellent purchase for those looking to get onto the property ladder.

The property comprises; a lounge, dining room and a kitchen to the ground floor whilst to the first floor there are two bedrooms and a bathroom. The property is warmed with gas central heating and uPVC double glazing is installed.

To the rear of the property lies a fully enclosed garden that incorporates a paved patio area and a well kept lawn with flower beds. Included within the sale is also a timber built, fully sound proofed structure that is currently used as a music studio but provides an excellent space for productivity, creativity or leisure. There is also the benefit of a parking space for one vehicle that is accessed from Lansdowne street at the rear.

Macclesfield is a thriving business centre and market town with excellent local amenities and a choice of modern leisure and sports facilities. The town is situated on the Cheshire Plain, at the edge of the Peak District National Park with its picturesque beauty and extensive walks.

Residents of Macclesfield have access to good transport links including national motorways, major roads and train networks, including the West Coast Line direct to London. Manchester International Airport is only thirteen miles away by road. Greater Manchester is within comfortable daily travelling distance and there are regular bus services to neighbouring towns.

Proceed out of Macclesfield along Hurdsfield Road (B5470) signposted Whaley Bridge and the property can be found on the right hand side.
