Property Description

Stepping into the open-plan living area with its relaxed neutral tones, it is immediately clear that this luxury lodge simply oozes style and practicality. Kick off your walking shoes, and collapse into one of the two large comfy sofas, and allow your troubles to simply fade away. Gather with family around the dining table to chat about your plans for the next day as you prepare your evening meal. And on warmer evenings, after an afternoon spend laughing together, you can throw open your french doors to soak in the afternoon rays, as you enjoy a sip of your favourite drink on your decking, or maybe soak away aching muscles in your very own hot tub.

And then once your days comes to a close, you can retire to your master bedroom to snuggle down into your cosy bed to rest the night away. The master bedroom also boasts an en-suite shower for added privacy. And two other good size bedrooms, plus a family size bathroom, including a full bath, are perfect to bring along the rest of the family, or friends, to make the most of your holidays in the Devon countryside.
