Wigston Lane
Aylestone Leicester

Property Description

Located in a well-connected yet peaceful suburb. Aylestone is a sought-after area due to its balance between city access and suburban tranquillity. It offers easy access to Leicester city centre, just a few miles away, making it ideal for those who work in the city but prefer a quieter living environment.

In terms of amenities, Aylestone provides a range of local shops, cafes, and pubs. Wigston Lane is also well-served by public transport, with regular bus routes connecting to the city and surrounding areas. Schools, medical facilities, and leisure centres are within close proximity, making it a convenient location for families.

Additionally, the nearby motorway networks, including the M1 and M69, offer easy connections to other cities like Nottingham, Birmingham, and Coventry. For those commuting by train, Leicester Railway Station is easily accessible, offering fast services to London and other major cities.

This blend of city access, local amenities, and green spaces makes it highly desirable for both professionals and families looking for a quieter neighbourhood.
