Property Description

Blaby is a delightful village situated in South Leicestershire. The buildings in Blaby are both of historical and architectural interest as Old Blaby is a conservation area. It contains some ancient and picturesque dwellings giving the charming village an olde world feel. The Bakers Arms thatched roof public house in Blaby dates back to 1484 and there are other public houses and local amenities including a post office, two supermarkets, pharmacies, health centres, library, hotel, two primary schools, a dentist, churches and Bouskell and Northfield Parks. As well as being serviced by good transport links Blaby is a charming village filled with character and has plenty to offer.

Hartley House is situated in the sought after location of Old Blaby and would make an ideal family home. The property is spacious throughout and commands a large plot with idyllic gardens and with a detached double garage. A rare opportunity to live in this sought after location.
