Property Description

Ullesthorpe is a small village and civil parish situated to the south of Leicestershire. Ullesthorpe is noted for its historic background with a mill, disused railway station and traces of a medieval settlement evident on the edge of the village.

Local amenities include a primary school, post office, village shop, butchers, doctors surgery, hairdressers, garden centre, congregational church, two pubs and a golf course associated with the 'Ullesthorpe Court Hotel'.

A well presented four bedroom detached family home, tucked away in a quiet cul-de-sac location within the popular village of Ullesthorpe. The property offers spacious versatile accommodation and this attractive home is perfect for families seeking a peaceful yet convenient village setting.

Entrance Hall

There is a door to the front of the property, stairs rising to the first floor, wooden flooring, coving to the ceiling, central heating radiator and an understairs cupboard.
