Seller's Comments

I was attracted to this apartment as it offers quiet, safe, residential living whilst being within walking distance to Leamington town centre and the train station. Parking is easy as there is one allocated parking space, but also free parking available on the road outside. It is perfect for those working in Leamington or even in the surrounding areas (Warwick, Coventry) as the transport links to the nearby motorways/A roads are excellent (and you avoid having to drive through town to get out of Leamington). It also has an efficient gas boiler rather than electric heating which is perfect for the winter months and for cooking on a gas hob (which isn't that common for flats/apartments). There are plenty of shops nearby and I have always felt safe and comfortable within the apartment.

There is plenty of room within the flat and the open-plan kitchen/living area is really spacious.
