Property Description

Connells are thrilled to present to the market this glorious semi-detached family home located on the outskirts of Gillingham in the highly regarded village of Stour Provost, Dorset. Comprising an impressive amount of living space, this home has been maintained and upgraded to a high standard by our vendors over the last 18 years, resulting in a brilliantly well-rounded property - matched internally by the outside space on offer. The flexibility found in this home is also something to admire, offering a spacious reception room which flows to a well-lit garden room and a large kitchen/dining space which is accompanied by a functional utility space. You will also find an additional room on ground floor which can be used as either an additional reception room, or a fourth bedroom. This sensational property is not one to be missed - CALL CONNELLS AND BOOK YOUR VIEWING TODAY!
