Honey Cottage . Buckhorn Weston Gillingham SP8 5HT

for sale guide price
£750,000

Connells are thrilled to present this truly sensational four-bedroom detached home to the market in the idyllic countryside village of Buckhorn Weston, Dorset. This bespoke blend of traditional character and modern style epitomises the definition of countryside living entirely, an early viewing is highly recommended to avoid missing out. The original section of the home oozes with charm and boasts log burners, stunning mantelpieces, hardwood flooring and generous yet cosy accommodation throughout its various bedrooms and reception rooms. This home has also undergone extensive improvement work including, but not limited to, an electrical rewire and a vast ground floor extension resulting in an impressively bright kitchen/dining space and a playroom for the children to enjoy. The kitchen's been fitted with a mixture of solid wood and granite worktops, elevating the appeal to another level, and still maintaining the original personality hosted within the home. If the interior of this home isn't enticing enough, the outside space available at Honey Cottage is just as remarkable boasting 2 separate driveways and an EV charging point. There's a large patio dining space served by the bifold doors in the kitchen where you can enjoy meals with a striking view of the countryside. Within the ample lawn space, you will also find a swim-spa/hot tub combination with a decked surround, perfect for those days in the hot summer sun.
